Dear xxxx

Save 93% on your ND6, Sametime or QuickPlace training

When you purchase new licences for ND6, Sametime or Quickplace you can now buy education licences for just €1.01 each. That's a massive saving of 93% on the original price.

Professional training speeds return on investment

There are great business benefits to be gained from high-quality, effective training when you're implementing new software. By familiarising staff early with added functionality and user benefits, you can

- Gain user acceptance fast
- Speed up time to productivity
- Reduce pressure on the helpdesk

Choice of training strategies, all at low cost

To get started you need just one copy of the Media Kit, available on CD for only €xxx.

This low-cost education bundle provides high-quality training materials in electronic format for you to print and use to suit your needs. Whether you prefer to provide classroom training or let staff learn individually, this CD has the right materials to help you, including:

- Student Guides for instructor-led training or for reference
- Reference Cards
- eLearning, self-paced tutorials

For every licence you purchase for ND6, Sametime or QuickPlace, you can then purchase an end user education licence for the remarkably low price of €1.01.

To take advantage of this exceptional offer, contact your IBM Lotus Education Manager or speak to your local IBM Sales Representative.
